JUNE 12: Meet at Savannah Airport for international flight to Ireland.

JUNE 13: WEXFORD: On arrival at Dublin Airport you'll be greeted by a Club Choice Ireland representative, then transported by minibus to Powerscourt House and Gardens where you can decompress with beautifully landscaped gardens, the grandeur of the magnificent mansion house and the dramatic waterfall.

An Oasis of tranquility and charm, the Duck Restaurant is located in restored courtyard buildings with French doors overlooking the kitchen garden filled with vegetables, soft fruits, a plethora of herbs and beds of blooming roses! Arrive in Wexford, a friendly and lively town in the most southeasterly corner of Ireland. Overnight at the 4-star Whites of Wexford, located in the heart of Wexford town and overlooking the quay.

JUNE 14: WEXFORD: Rosslare Golf Links is situated on the narrow, sandy peninsula overlooking Wexford Harbour to the west and the Irish sea to the east. The only true 'links' course in the region, it uses the lands natural contours and coastal sand dunes to shape each hole. A casual and fun place to dine serving modern cuisine, with particular emphasis on European fare, Green Acres believe in using the freshest products Ireland has to offer.

Overnight at Whites of Wexford.

JUNE 15: WEXFORD: Bunclody Golf & Fishing Club, situated in 300 acres of breath-taking parklands in the former Hall-Dare Estate on the Carlow - Wexford border, it is already ranked in the top 20 parkland courses in Ireland.

Just 5 minutes' walk from the Whites of Wexford and set in a beautifully restored local landmark, The Old Granary blends Wexford's rich history with comforting, home-cooked food.

Overnight at Whites of Wexford.

JUNE 16: KILKENNY: Kilkenny Castle is a massive 12th-century fortress dominating the 'Marble City'. What makes it truly cool is its 800-year history of continuous occupation and its unique transformation from a Norman stronghold into a Victorian-style palace. This self-guided tour will lead you through the restored Period Rooms, fascinating characters and hidden gems.

A fun and informative Medieval Mile Walking Tour provides a comprehensive 800-year history of Ireland's best-preserved medieval city in a compact, 1.5-mile stroll. It will guide you along Ireland's leading example of a 12th-century town with its four Medieval Abbeys and the towering, majestic St. Canice's Cathedral.

Your stay will be at the Manor House which is the beating heart of the Mount Juliet Estate and has been ever since the first Earl of Carrick and his wife Juliet first made it their home in 1757. Each bedroom is individually designed and named after a famous figure connected with the estate.

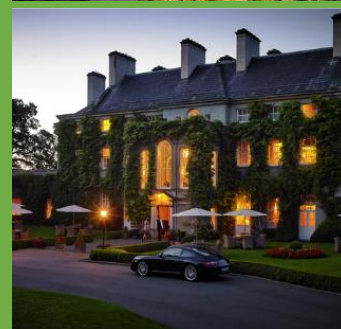

The Lady Helen Restaurant at The Manor House has held a Michelin Star for 12 consecutive years. Executive Chef John Kelly leads the kitchen, focusing on a multi-course tasting menu that uses ingredients sourced from the estate's own walled gardens.

JUNE 17: KILKENNY: Mount Juliet Golf Club is one of Europe's premier parkland courses and the first in Ireland designed by Jack Nicklaus.

Spanning 180 acres of the historic 1,500-acre Mount Juliet Estate, the course is renowned for its championship pedigree, pristine conditioning, and strategic use of the natural landscape. Dine at the award-winning Hound Restaurant on the Mount Juliet Estate. This casual dining restaurant champions high-quality locally sourced Irish ingredients with refined dishes full of robust flavours. Overnight at Manor House.

JUNE 18: DUBLIN: Situated on the shoreline of a rugged peninsula, Jameson Golf Links is set on the grounds of the old Jameson Estate of St. Marnocks. the course has played host to professional and amateur events including the 2021 Irish Challenge.

McGovern's Restaurant has a lively atmosphere and stylish interior, combined with warm service and mouth-watering food, ensuring a thoroughly enjoyable evening. Unlike any other Dublin Hotel, Portmarnock Resort enjoys an enviable oceanfront location perched on the five-mile stretch of Dublin's "Velvet Strand". The long association between the Jameson family and Portmarnock begins when John Jameson III, the grandson of the founder of the Jameson Distillery, moved to St. Marnocks in 1847.

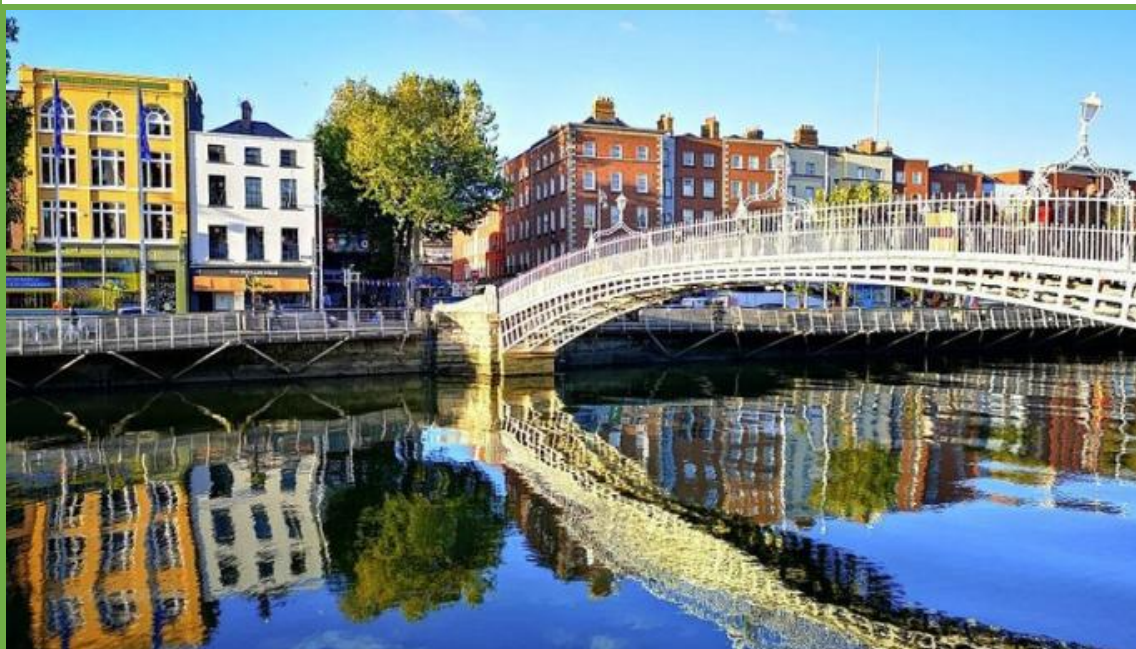

JUNE 19: DUBLIN: The Dublin City Walking Tour will show you the most famous Dublin locations and many areas that are often missed. See Dublin as it was meant to be seen, discover the treasures of the city and bring home happy memories to keep with you forever.

Savor the sights, sounds, tastes, and aromas of Guinness beyond the gates at the home of the black stuff; The Guinness Storehouse. Learn about the exceptional optimism of Arthur Guinness and his 9,000-year lease.

Offering a dining experience that celebrates the abundance of the sea and set against the backdrop of panoramic views of the majestic coastline, The Seaview's skilled chefs delight your palate with an exquisite selection of seafood dishes crafted with locally sourced fish and shellfish.

Overnight at Portmarnock Resort.

JUNE 20: DUBLIN: Return to Dublin Airport for your onward flight home.
